Myspace is the most popular online community, with more than five million users registered. The number is growing every day. What makes this site so special that it has the largest number of users? They probably offer the best options in terms of profile settings and various others. With this community, there are many Myspace layouts that the users can choose from.

The Myspace layouts are available for free, and the themes vary, as they will have to cater to the needs of various types of people. The layouts will basically give the profile a very unique look, and will thus allow many visitors to take an interest in that. With the layout, the navigation is easy. At the left hand corner you have the photo gallery.

You can put pictures of yourself and create an album too at this point. Right below that are the contact details, and there is the interest column. No other community has such features, as they are plenty as well as innovative to keep the user occupied all the time. On the right side you would have blogs and also a column to write about yourself.

The right side bottom is dedicated to friends, and a column where friends can leave messages. The user can keep exploring a lot, as there is no way that he should be bored. Layouts are of various types too, and they can be chosen from various web sites. Many of the features are available so that people may get more creative.

The most exciting feature one can access through the Myspace layouts is the forums. This is the place you can meet and discuss with as many people as you want. The layouts provide opportunities for the users to express themselves in many ways with the features. Since they can choose a theme of their choice, they will begin taking more interest in developing the profile through these features.

The features will include everything that is needed for a community site. Since it is all about communication with people, forums and blogs are extremely popular. Through this people can express their thoughts to a great extent. By taking some time to check through the types of layouts available, the presentation of the profile could be more interesting.
