You can choose the amount of bedrooms and how you want the beds to be distributed: two doubles, a single, bunk beds, double beds or sofa bed to have even more room.

You needn't worry about getting to breakfast on time as you can prepare them when you want and as you like. All Barcelona apartments are fully furnished with all the basic kitchen utensils and appliances. It is nice to have the option of just a quick meal or snack and not have to worry about making reservation or queueing. One fun activity, if you want to call it that, is to have a Barcelonian style breakfast sitting out on the terrace, enjoying the fantastic year round weather. You should order fritter with a nice hot cup of hot chocolate, or if you need something stronger to wake you up, good Spanish style coffee and a typical pastry. If you had the idea of a hefty breakfast, then go for any of the many Spanish omelettes. Paying exorbitant prices in the restaurants can be eliminated and as the days go by, you will be able to observe which places have the best offers and enjoy your meals there. When making daily excursions you can easily pack a picnic basket after snooping around in the local delicatessen or supermarket, choosing what best suits your needs.

Apartments All Over Catalunya

Before, renting a holiday apartment meant a lot of paperwork, but now with computers and specialized agents, it's a breeze. So, why should we just stay in one city when there is so much to see? You can head to the area called the Costa Brava in Sitges where you can stay in an apartment during Carnival time, then continue up and stay in a beautiful rural apartment in Girona or in Figueres and make a good visit to the Dali Museum before landing at the foothills of the Pyrennes Mountains in a rustic style apartment; all having to do with seeing Barcelona. You can enjoy a lovely stay in one of the many ski resort apartments and go crazy practising your favourite winter sports. You can go for long nature walks and do high risk activities.

All this is waiting for you because when you grasp the idea of Barcelona apartments, you have saved yourself a lot of worries and money, too.
