When Is It Appropriate To Give A Bottle Of Wine As A Gift?

If you are attending a celebration party, a bottle of wine makes the perfect gift. Gifts of wine are an excellent choice for housewarming parties, parties celebrating a raise or promotion, retirement gifts, wedding gifts, birthday gifts, Christmas gifts, Thanksgiving gifts, and of course, New Year's gifts. It is something that everyone at the celebration or holiday get together can enjoy. Let's face it, a party does seem to liven up once the bottle has been popped open. It is also a great gift for your mate if you are planning a romantic evening in celebration of Valentine's day, an anniversary, a birthday, or to simply let them know that you're thinking of them.

Other Types Of Wine Gifts

A wine gift doesn't necessarily have to be a bottle of wine. It can also be a gift that's associated with wine, such as a wine key, wine glasses, drink coasters, a wine bottle holder, a wine rack, or even wine themed decor. Anything that has to do with wine is considered a wine gift, and the wine lover in your life will most certainly welcome it.

Everyone who drinks wine should have a good wine key in their house. Even if it's an inexpensive one, it will be appreciated. However, there are wine keys that are a little more expensive that require some arm and wrist strength to open the bottle. This makes a great gift for someone who loves wine but hates opening the bottles.

Wine themed decor also makes a great gift idea for the wine lover. This type of decor will have depictions of wine bottles, grapes, vineyards, or possibly even cheese. Many clocks, candles, candleholders, wall plaques and paintings are available in this theme and make lovely decorations in the dining room and kitchen. If the gift recipient already owns a wine rack, then wine glasses or decorations to put on and around the rack would be great wine gift ideas.

Wine Gift Baskets Make A Thoughtful Gift

Another idea for a wine gift is a gift basket. These gift baskets usually include a bottle wine, maybe some meats and cheeses, as well as an opener, or anything else to do with wine. These also make great gifts that are thoughtful, especially if you create it yourself. It is a gift the wine lover in your life is sure to enjoy. The best part about giving the gift of wine is that if you stick around, you may even get to enjoy the wine yourself.

It doesn't matter if you're giving a bottle of wine, a wine accessory, or decoration, it's the thought of giving that will impress the person or couple that you are giving it to. So, this gift giving occasion, be sure to consider giving the gift of wine.
