USB Rocket Launcher - The USB rocket launcher gives you the ultimate desk defence system to keep your sweaty, smelly breathed boss away from you to leave you to get on with the important matters of the day, which include anything other than work! The USB rocket launcher holds three rockets and you can control your USB rocket launcher from your computer; rotating and tilting the launcher until you have the enemy in your sights. Then as you hit the fire button the three missiles deploy sequentially.

USB Hamster Wheel - Have you have ever wanted a furry little Hamster to sit on your desk, but didn't want to deal with cleaning up poo and feeding it? Well you might want to check this out. You connect this little hamster wheel to your PC USB port and then load the included software. The faster you type the faster the little guy runs. Now you can have a PC powered by hamsters..... Sort of...Provides light relief from the busy working days anyway.

USB Pole Dancer - Somehow boys will be boys and no matter how old they are, there is nothing quite like a pole dancer to get their attention. We all know that the USB port is great for powering a whole bunch of desktop toys, but this USB-powered Pole Dancer has been getting quite a lot of stick in prudish U.K., even to the extent of having it pulled from store shelves. This Pole Dancer is actually a doll wearing a red bikini, strutting her thang about a plastic pole with an accompaniment of flashing lights and disco music.
