is a phenomenon among us, and what once was the Internet's best kept secret has now exploded into what is now known as the third most popular website in the United States. I can see you scrolling names through in your head trying to figure out which one that could be, or which ones are the top two. It doesn't really matter which ones are the top two, because number three is really the one that everyone is talking about.

They call it MySpace and what was once a small social networking site is now a leader in the country in connecting people and networking friends and strangers all over the world. With its FREE accessibility, and the ability to download a free MySpace layout from all over the web, there is no reason that you too can not find your own space to call "My Space" - and noone else's.

With well over fifty million members to choose from for your friends or network, it is not a difficult task to see why this has become so popular. Haven't joined yet? Why not? Where else can you get a free website that is all about you and allows you to connect to over fifty million people? Go do it, do it now.

Not sure you have the tech savvy? No worries, you are able to choose a free MySpace layout from all over the Internet, with each carrying a host of tutorials and graphics that will enable you to develop your own sense of style on MySpace with very little effort. And did you hear the word free? Yes, a free MySpace layout is available on a global level all over the web. You just have to know where to find them.

When you first sign up for MySpace you will be given the standard profile page with tables and an assortment of other elements. Take advantage of this and consider it a clean page if you will, and remember what this wonderful corner of the web is called - My Space. That's right, this is your corner now and you can do with it whatever you want. This is your opportunity to shine, and your free MySpace layout will be the first way you go about doing that.

Now you have to consider what you want to do with it. Remember, this space is yours, and when people see it (oh, and they will!) you want them to know what YOU are about. With this mass explosion in the popularity of the site, customizing your MySpace has become an industry in itself. If you don't like the layout you are given, you will be able to find a free MySpace layout that will tell the world who you are and what is so unique about you.
