Introduction

Wolverhampton is a wonderful city steeped in history and tradition. With so many places to go and entertainment to enjoy you will never be without something to do.

Places of interest

Wolverhampton's list of places of interest is vast as there is so much to see. Whatever your interest are you sure to find somewhere in and around Wolverhampton. There are so many interesting buildings from different eras that are enriched with tradition. If history is not your thing, there are also art galleries as well as the light house media centre for anyone interested in television production.

Bantock House and Park - Located just outside the Wolverhampton city centre, this grade II listed house is a great visit for any passionate historian. Once inside you will discover the story of this 19th century house and how the Bantock family used to live 100 years ago. This is a great place for the whole family to enjoy, with activities for the children all through the house.

Bilston Craft Gallery and Museum - The gallery hosts craft exhibitions with workshops and events.

Wightwick Manor - This Victorian family house gives a great understanding of life during that era.

Wolverhampton Art Gallery - If you enjoy contemporary art then this is the gallery for you. It has gained a reputation for showcasing thought provoking exhibitions, and workshops and events. Opens Monday to Saturday 10am to 5pm.

Light House Media Centre - This independent cinema video production facility is a great attraction for anyone interested in television and film production. It holds talks, exhibitions, training courses, conferences and special events.

Things to do

Wolverhampton is a city where you will need to spend a few days to experience all of the recreational activities afforded to you. With so many activities it's hard to know where to start. Whatever your interests are this list should start you on your way to getting the most out of Wolverhampton.

Shopping - Wolverhampton has a mixture of chain stores and independent shops to meet everyone's needs. The city centre has been improved making it safer to shop. There are two shopping centres, Mander and Wulfrun, which have a large range of national and local shops plus a food court.

Light Rail System (Metro) - Travelling across Wolverhampton couldn't be simpler with the light rail system. The electrically powered tram system is designed to solve the congestion problem, and help bring people from outside into the city centre. The relaxing and comfortable ride is a great way to enjoy the scenery.

Wolverhampton City Show - Come and enjoy the Wolverhampton City show this summer at West Park. This two day event is a fun-filled weekend that is ideal for all the family. You can enjoy anything from a Sheep-Shearing display to badge making for the kids. Live music is also on offer for anyone who likes to just sit back and relax to some music and sun. Each year even more attractions are added, so it is definitely something not to be missed.

Molineux football stadium - Take a trip to the Molineux football stadium to enjoy some championship football. Join in with the locals to cheer on the mighty wolves.

Aldersley Leisure Centre - If you fancy taking part in some physical activities then the Aldersley Leisure Centre is the place to go. This newly built multi-events centre offers anything from Athletics, five-a-side football to volleyball.

Bliston Leisure centre - If you are more of a water baby then the Bliston Leisure centre will be right up your alley. This centre has a main pool and a small pool for the children. The centre has swimming lessons, plus fun sessions to put the enjoyment in swimming. It's a great place for parents to take there children, as parents and toddler sessions are also available.

Food & Drink

Wolverhampton prides itself on the diversity of restaurant offerings it provides. All types of foods are available in this buzzing city including Chinese, Indian, Greek, Thai, Spanish, Mexican and Italian, as well as the usual fast-food outlets. Whatever your tastes are, you will be catered for in Wolverhampton.

Ristorante Romagna - Lovely Italian restaurant with an A La Carte & Table d'hote menu. English food is also available.
