On this site you can fill out any Credit Card Application for any card you want. What you should do before you apply for credit cards is that you should apply for a free credit report.

This is very easy to do. Go online to Free credit report .com and click on the tab for free annual credit report. Everyone is allowed one free credit report per year. These reports do not include the credit score, for those the credit card company will charge a small fee. Then you follow the instructions, there will be a phone number where you can call and order online but it is automated and they have a hard time getting all the information.

You can go online and you can order and they will send you via the mail. Check out and see where you stand and what if any bad debt is on there as well. Try not to make too many credit inquiries because they actually go on your credit report, so don't answer all credit card offers you get in the mail or online through email. There are many free credit report resources that this is not the only way. You can actually get the report via email as well.

If you are the owner of a lot of bad debt, you should take steps to correct that. Try debt consolidation, with debt consolidation you want to be able to pay all of your bad debt by contacting a debt consolidator company and show them your credit report and then they will work up a settlement in which the credit card companies are willing to accept and then for a low monthly payment you can pay down your debt.

This will eventually clear up your credit. If you choose to do nothing about credit cards that have been written off as bad debt. You can wait 7 years and the information will come off of your credit report. But if you pay back the debt, it will show bad debt but it will also show that you paid it which looks better to other potential creditors. Credit repair is hard to do , it is possible but it can take a months to a year to reestablish good credit.

If you own a home and you need to refinance your mortgage, before you make any crazy decisions try looking into any and all Home Mortgages Resources, which includes refinancing or a home equity loan.
