Article Body:

What is Kaal sarpa dosha?

When two or more planets combine in one place this is called yoga (combination) . when this yoga produce inauspicious results in the life of a person we call it as dosha .

In a horoscope of a person when all the planets are hemmed between Rahu (Dragons head) and Ketu (dragons tail) the this dosha is produced . Ancient Indian Astrology is silent on this dosha and modern Indian astrologers are yet to finalise the existance of this dosha in a horoscope and results of this dosha . In this dosha all the planets are swallowed by Rahu and Ketu and person is in a grip of circumstances/environment and he finds nothing to success in life.

Ancient Scholers of astrology accepted this dosha but not much detail is available. Maharshi (sage) Parasher , sage Varahmihir ,sage Bhrigu, etc had accepted this dosha. Actually Rahu and Ketu are considered to be shadowy planets in vedic astrology . Astronimically they are two nodes in the orbit ascending node and descending node . Therefore they are able to create mysteries in the life of a person and person never hold the things in life as one can never hold the shadow.
