Article Body:
If music is your passion and you want to know the basics to get success in music are trying to get some useful tips in case you are a beginner. There are both advantages and disadvantages if you want to learn guitar fast because this is possible if you learn it online.

 The positive side
It happens that many of you don't want to learn how to play guitar like pros. You just want to learn few chords to play at events such as campfires or to impress your friends or family with your skills. As such you may not wish to spend your time and money into a complete learning of the guitar lesson then you can easily learn simple tricks online.

Also if you want to play the guitar well and you don't have the time and resources to do so for example you have a job, family and traveling that doesn't spare you to attend guitar classes. So it would be great if you practice guitar in your spare time without leaving any of your routine tasks.
Online classes or lessons are found to be more dynamic and successful as compared to theory books. These lessons have graphics, animated images and demo sounds that makes it easier for you to learn. In case you are stuck you can easily ask some guitarist those provide lessons.

Lastly online guitar lessons are inexpensive and sometimes also free whereas private lessons are often expensive and many of you may not fond it suitable to pay for learning guitar.

 The Negative aspect

While you are learning online you might be tempted to learn fast whereby it may be possible that the standard teaching method may not suit your learning style. These may not focus on your particular learning needs and you may want to focus on aspects whereby a teaching program is standard and tries to respond to the needs of any average guitar player. You won't get any applause to motivate you when you are progressing as compared to private learning.
